

Image

Ground Truth

w/o Spatial Mask

w/ Spatial Mask

Comparison of prediction results when performing training without and with the spatial mask. The images show, that integrating spatial information into the final prediction allows us to avoid the misclassification of the lake pixels as sky. Unfortunately the reflection of the trees and buildings, still caused the network to misclassify the corresponding areas in both versions.